R·STUART & CO.

WINERY

McMINNVILLE, OREGON • SINCE 2001

It all started with a spark.

The name "Big Fire" came from one of our original partners, a full blown Irish lassie, who shared with Rob and Maria the Irish tradition of a community coming together around a big fire. Everyone brings what they can - whether that be food, wine, or a log to add to the pile - with the goal of creating a space for friends and loved ones to gather.

At R. Stuart, we believe that great wines should be accessible to your every day, which is why we like to call Big Fire wines our "Tuesday night wines." They are the ultimate taste of the Willamette Valley, designed to be savored right when you want it and with the people you love.

We source our fruit from several vineyards across the Willamette Valley, providing us a variety of flavors and profiles with which we make our wines.

High quality fruit means our wines are less about winemaking and far more about terroir. Our wines are intended to give you a sense of place – showcasing where the grapes are grown.

Big Fire Pinot Gris is a staple of the R. Stuart & Co. portfolio. This is the bottle Maria would always open while cooking harvest dinners for our crew. A glass of this wine is the ultimate sign that our boots can be kicked off and the day is winding down.

Rob has a variety of long-term relationships, and contracts, with the vineyards we work with. 2026 marks Rob's 45th harvest, and Rob has worked with some of our vineyards for half of his career.

Big Fire Pinot Noir is often how folks across the country are introduced to our brand, and we couldn't be more pleased to share it far and wide. If someone is looking for quintessential Oregon Pinot noir flavors and profile, this is the wine to share.

Rooted in the heart of downtown McMinnville, Oregon.
